

2010 ASTA Luncheon at the Lady and Sons Restaurant Friday, January 29, 2010

We are so excited to announce that this years ASTA luncheon, which takes place during the GMEA conference in Savannah, will once again be held at Paula Deen's Lady & Sons restaurant, located at 102 W Congress St.

The Lady & Sons restaurant had its humble beginnings back in June 1989 when Paula Deen started The Bag Lady out of her home. But Paula wanted a new home for The Lady, one in which the ambiance matched the style of food. Thus the birth of The Lady and Sons Restaurant. In December 1999, The Lady & Sons was named "International Meal of the Year" by USA Today. In December 2002, the restaurant was featured in a multi-page feature article in Southern Living Magazine.

We invite you to come join us and experience their home cooking, their Southern hospitality and good times with the Georgia and Linda show! (and if we are lucky... maybe even a guest appearance by Paula!!!)

Southern Buffet Luncheon Tickets are $25.00.

Seating is limited and tickets must be purchased directly through the Georgia ASTA chapter. The first 50 people to order their tickets will receive free charter bus transportation to the luncheon. Tickets will not be available at the door or through GMEA!!!

The deadline for ordering tickets is January 16, 2010.
