ABOUT THE GEORGIA ASTA CAMP

The Georgia American String Teachers Association Summer Orchestra Camp is held at the Calvin Center in Hampton, Georgia. It is a comprehensive orchestra curriculum for students in grades 4-9. Georgia ASTA developed this camp to encourage young string players as they discover the fun and rewards of making music together.

RECREATIONAL ACTIVITIES

A variety of recreational activities are offered daily, including lifeguard-supervised pool time, a camp fire, hayride, ice cream social, and movies. Camp 2 also includes canoeing, a talent show, and a dance. Parents will be able to view all the camp happenings from day to day as we upload pictures and videos of events to the camp website!

THE STAFF

The staff is composed of well-known ASTA string teachers from throughout the state of Georgia. Our staff has included Sharon Anderson, Sarah Black, Amy Clement, Sheldon Fisher, Carolyn and James Landreau, Carl Rieke, Marilyn Seelman, Bernadette Scruggs, Natascha Sahara, Tim and Tricia Anderson, and many other outstanding teachers from throughout the state.

TO REGISTER

Please review the available sessions and choose the camp appropriate for your grade and experience level. To apply, please visit the camp website at www.GeorgiaASTACamp.com, or complete the information on the back of this page. Grade levels refer to last completed grade. If you're not sure which camp to attend, please check the website for more detailed information.

ASTA Camp 1: May 30-June 2

Beginning 6th graders with 1-2 years of
orchestra experience

ASTA Camp 2: June 3- June 6
Advanced 6th graders with 2+ years of
orchestra experience
All 7th, 8th and 9th graders

Camp Fee: $380

THE FACILITIES

Camp Calvin is located 30 minutes from downtown Atlanta. Housing and most rehearsals are located in the Conference Lodge. For larger camps, the nearby Geneva Lodge is used for housing as well. All meals are served cafeteria-style just a short walk from the Conference Lodge, and include a full salad bar and many healthy options at every meal.

Camp registration and tuition are due no later than May 4th. Both camps will fill, so please get your application in early! A late fee of $30.00 will be charged following the May 4th deadline if room is still available. A camp packet will be sent to you with important camp information and details approximately two weeks before camp begins. To register online, or if you have additional questions, please check the camp website for details and Frequently Asked Questions.
